STAT

Area of Coverage: China

Subjects Covered: Economic plans and fulfillment of plans; restoration of industrial and agricultural production; land reform; grain tax.

Scholarship Evaluation: Official reports made to the Military and Administrative Committees of each region by the committee chairmen or vice-chairmen

Review: Reports deal with the over-all conditions and plans for each region and may be of interest to those primarily concerned with the transition period when control was transferred from the KMT to the Communists. These reports, which were made between January and April 1950 to the early sessions of the committees, describe in general terms the existing economic situation and plans for 1950. Gives Tseng Shan's detailed report on economic and financial conditions and program of East China and other reports by P'eng Te-huai, and Teng Shao-p'ing.
